Classroom Procedures and Regulations

Tardiness: The first tardy results in a warning. The second results in forfeiture of an attendance exemption and ½ hour Tuesday afternoon detention with me. The third and all subsequent tardies will result in office referral.

Make-up Work: Unexcused Absence: Absolutely NO make-up work will be accepted

Excused Absence: Any work assigned before the absence is due the day of the student's return. Any work assigned during the absence will have a due date equal to the number of days missed (e.g. a student absent two days will have two days to turn in the work with no penalty). Any work turned in the day after the due date will be accepted as a late grade (70%). Work is not accepted after that.

Tests and quizzes: Each morning before school is the designated time for make-up unless other arrangements are made with me. Make-up work is YOUR responsibility and not mine. Do not ask me about assignments, ask a fellow student or check the white board/bulletin board for the most current assignments.

Difficulties: I expect you to seek help quickly if you are confused or are starting to fall slightly behind. Do not wait until the day of a test. Seek help as soon as the difficulty arises. My website (www.latinmagistra.com) has links to practice and drill sites as well.

Also, there is a computer drill and practice program loaded on the computers in the foreign language lab. We will have class time on these computers once every other week. Students may sign up in the lab for extra practice before or after school.

I find e-mail to be the easiest form of communication. Students and/or parents may contact me via e-mail at bryant.connie@fcboe.org or via telephone – 770/631-3232 ext. 372.
